We are a lively Anglican Church in the heart of Peckham. We are incredibly excited at what God might do next, since we feel like He's been stirring up a new passion in us recently, preparing us for something new. At present, we have around 250-300 people worshipping with us every Sunday, approximately 70 of those being children under 12 years old. There are stories back in the 19th Century when the church was planted, of outdoor Sunday schools packed with 800 kids. God's done it before, He could do it again! And so, children's ministry is precious to us, it's what has historically marked All Saints out. Therefore, we are looking for a creative and ambitious person to spearhead the ministry to 0-11, hoping to have an impact on their families too, whilst reimagining new ways to reach out beyond our church walls. One of our church family values which relates to our children's ministry too, is that we want to be sending out disciple making disciples. We are seeking a team member with the faith, fire, and imagination to be a key part of this new season.
