

OUR HEADLINES

DECEMBER 2018

Carol Singing

We are going carol singing! This is such a great opportunity to get into our community, bringing Christmas cheer and giving out invitations to our carol services. If you can make just one of these, we'd love you to be involved.

- Saturday 8 December at PEXMAS in Warwick Gardens, meet 3.30pm in church to be at Pexmas from 4 - 5.30pm.
- Tuesday 11 December, 6.45am at Peckham Rye station.
- Wednesday 12 December, 8pm - Carol Pub Crawl. Visiting all the pubs in our parish.
- Thursday 13 December, 6.45am at Rye Lane bus stop.

For all of our carol singing we'll meet at the church first to pray before going out. Please let the office know which one you'll be at. Thanks!

Carol Services

Sunday 16 December - Carols by Candlelight, 5pm & 7.30pm.

This is a great service to invite friends and family to come to! The 5pm service, although not aimed at children, will be more suitable for children of primary school age and up.

Sunday 23 December - Children's Nativity, 10.30am.

If you're inviting friends with young children, this is the best service to invite them to! It will be interactive, fun, and a great place for all ages to encounter the joy of Jesus.

Sunday 23 December - Carols by Starlight, 6pm.

A service outside in collaboration with Bar Story and other local businesses along Blenheim Grove.

Monday 24 December - Midnight Communion, 11.15pm.

Tuesday 25 December - Christmas Communion, 9am

Tuesday 25 December - Christmas Day Celebration, 10.30am.

Seeing in the new year

On Monday 31st we are partnering with our friends from Word Church (who meet in our hall) to host a joint Watchnight from 11pm in church, with a meal from 10pm in the hall.

CAN YOU BE INVOLVED?

This Christmas we won't be hosting a Christmas meal on Christmas Day. Instead, if you are in Peckham on Christmas Day then could you invite another to join you - maybe someone from your homegroup or someone you know from church who might be on their own otherwise? Please do feel free to do this, if you're not sure where to start contact the church
